

THE BENTLY RESERVE CREATES SPECIAL “MOTHER’S ROOM” FOR BREASTFEEDING MOMS

SAN FRANCISCO, CA – FEBRUARY 18, 2016 – In honor of the US Dept. of Labor’s “Affordable Care Act” requiring employers to provide reasonable break time and a private space for breastfeeding mothers, the Bently Reserve has created a “Mother’s Room.” The completely secure, tranquil room is ideal for breastfeeding moms who are attending a meeting at the Bently Reserve.

“We’re increasingly receiving requests from meeting planners for a private room for mothers who are breastfeeding, and we wanted to create a truly comfortable space for them,” said Director of Events and Sales Jim Bruels.

The “Mother’s Room” is available for meeting attendees and comes stocked with amenities tailored for relaxation and convenience including a private wet bar, a mini fridge, a water & tea station, cozy chairs, magazines and complimentary wifi.

With nine meeting rooms plus the Conference Center Lounge totaling more than 7,300 square feet, the Bently Reserve offers meeting planners a wide range of options, all equally stunning and outfitted in the latest technology. Large sunlit windows and classic furnishings complement meticulously restored original walnut paneling, Verde antique marble doorsills, and fireplaces. Most of the boardrooms and conference rooms have nautical names in honor of the two sunken ships, the Apollo and the Niantic, which rest underneath the foundation of the Bently Reserve.

The “Mother’s Room” is available Monday-Friday from 7 a.m. – 7 p.m. Cost: $300 for a full day. Must be booked in conjunction with an additional meeting room reservation. Minimum two-week advance notice. For more information about the Bently Reserve and to reserve meeting space, contact Director of Events and Sales Jim Bruels (415) 294-2226, jim.bruels@bentlyreserve.com.
